

New Century Project

Issues Forum

FORUM FEEDBACK

Week of November 6, 2006

Forum Feedback
Which issue is most important to you in this year's election?
Iraq	6%
Terrorism/Security	41%
Education	9%
Taxes/Economy	19%
Congressional Ethics	9%
Values	16%

Week of November 13 2006

Forum Feedback
How will Democrats run Congress with their new majority?
With an iron fist	27%
With bipartisanship	13%
With Republicans when they need them	60%
view past feedback results

December 2006 - January 2007

Forum Feedback
Which issue should Congress tackle first in the New Year?
Securing Social Security and Medicare	18%
Illegal Immigration	28%
Taxes	20%
Education	13%
Iraq	21%
view past feedback results

February – March 2007

Forum Feedback
Who is doing a better job so far in 2007?
The President	21%
Senate Republicans	26%
Senate Democrats	15%
House Republicans	21%
House Democrats	17%
view past feedback results

April-June 2007

Forum Feedback
Who stands to gain the most from the condensed 2008 Presidential Primary Season?
The Republican Candidates	21%
The Democratic Candidates	16%
The Political Parties	12%
The States	34%
The Voters	17%
view past feedback results

July 2007

Forum Feedback
Now that the Senate has rejected the most recent Immigration reform package, what is the next step Congress should take on Immigration?
Nothing. The system is fine the way it is.	6%
Concentrate on securing the borders.	29%
Enforce the laws we already have	35%
Pass a guest worker program - without a path to citizenship	24%
Try to pass another bill identical to the one they just rejected	6%
view past feedback results

August 2007

Forum Feedback
If signed into law, will the ethics reform bill, just passed by the House, effectively limit earmarks and hold our lawmakers more accountable?
No. They will just find a way around the rules.	56%
Maybe. We'll have to see what the Senate does.	33%
Yes. This bill makes the system more transparent.	11%
view past feedback results	